I elect to participate in the DROP in accordance with s 121.091(13), Florida Statutes (F.S.), as indicated below, and resign my employment on the date I terminate from the DROP. Participation in the DROP does not guarantee my employment for the DROP period.

DROP Accrual Distribution Methods

When your participation in DROP begins, your DROP benefit is based on the option selected at retirement (begin date for the DROP), and will accrue, with interest and cost-of-living adjustments, for the duration of your DROP participation. Upon your termination of employment and DROP, you must elect one of the following methods of payment for the DROP benefit within 60 days of your DROP employment termination.

1. Lump sum

All accrued DROP benefits, plus interest, less 20 percent tax remitted to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), shall be paid to the DROP participant or the surviving beneficiary.

2. Direct rollover

All accrued DROP benefits, plus interest, shall be paid from the DROP directly to the custodian of an eligible retirement plan as defined in s. 402(c)(8)(B), Internal Revenue Code (IRC). However, in the case of an eligible rollover distribution to the surviving spouse of a deceased participant, an eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement account or annuity as described in s. 402(c)(9), IRC.

3. Partial lump sum

A portion of the accrued DROP benefits shall be paid to the DROP participant or surviving spouse, less IRS tax, and the remaining DROP benefits shall be transferred directly to the custodian of an eligible retirement plan as defined in s. 402(c)(8)(B), IRC. However, in the case of an eligible rollover distribution to the surviving spouse of a deceased participant, an eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement account or annuity as described in s. 402(c)(9), IRC. The proportions shall be specified by the DROP participant or surviving spouse.

If you do not make an election of one of the above methods within the 60-day period, the Division of Retirement will pay directly to you the accrued benefits in a lump sum, less IRS tax. If you fail to terminate in accordance with s. 121.021(39)(b), Florida Statutes (F.S.) on your DROP termination date, your retirement will be null and void and your Florida Retirement System membership established retroactively to the date you began DROP.

A member must select one of the following retirement options prior to receipt of their first monthly retirement benefit.

I select:

_____ Option 1: A monthly benefit payable for my lifetime. Upon my death the monthly benefit will stop and my beneficiary will receive only a refund of any contributions I have paid which are in excess of the amount I have received in benefits. This option does not provide a continuing benefit to my beneficiary.

_____ Option 2: A reduced monthly benefit payable for my lifetime. If I die within a period of ten years after my retirement date, my designated beneficiary will receive a monthly benefit in the same amount as I was receiving for the balance of the 10-year period. No further benefits are then payable.

_____ Option 3: A reduced monthly benefit payable for my lifetime. Upon my death, my joint annuitant, if living, will receive a lifetime monthly benefit payment in the same amount as I was receiving. (Exception: The benefit paid to a joint annuitant under age 25, who is not your spouse, will be your option one benefit amount. The benefit will stop when your joint annuitant reaches age 25, unless disabled and incapable of self-support, in which case the benefit will continue for the duration of the disability.) No further benefits are payable after both my joint annuitant and I are deceased.

(Exception: The benefit paid to a joint annuitant under age 25, who is not your spouse, will be your option one benefit amount. The benefit will stop when your joint annuitant reaches age 25, unless disabled and incapable of self-support, in which case the benefit will continue for the duration of the disability.) The following is an explanation of all four Florida Retirement System Options:

- Option 1: A monthly benefit payable for my lifetime. Upon my death, the monthly benefit will stop and my beneficiary will receive only a refund of any contributions I have paid which are in excess of the amount I have received in benefits. This option does not provide a continuing benefit to my beneficiary.

No further benefits are payable after both my joint annuitant and I are deceased.
- Option 4: An adjusted monthly benefit payable to me while both my joint annuitant and I are living. Upon the death of either my joint annuitant or me, the monthly benefit payable to the survivor is reduced to two-thirds of the monthly benefit received when both were living. (Exception: The benefit paid to the joint annuitant under age 25, who is not your spouse, will be your option one benefit amount. The benefit will stop when your joint annuitant reaches age 25, unless disabled and incapable of self-support, in which case the benefit will continue for the duration of the disability.) No further benefits are payable after both my joint annuitant and I are deceased.

FLORIDA RETIREMENT SYSTEM PENSION PLAN TERMINATION AND REEMPLOYMENT AFTER RETIREMENT

To receive a retirement benefit, including the Deferred Retirement Option Program (DROP) payout, you must terminate all employment, to include but not limited to: part-time work, other personal services (OPS), poll worker, substitute teaching, adjunct professor, or non-Division approved contractual services with all employers participating under the Florida Retirement System (FRS). If you are dually employed with one or more FRS employers, you must terminate this employment as well.

After you retire without participating in DROP (service retirement), or terminate DROP participation, you are subject to the following Termination Requirements and Reemployment restrictions in the first 12 calendar months of your service retirement beginning with the month of your effective retirement date or following your DROP termination date:

Termination Requirements - During the first six calendar months of your service retirement beginning with the month of your effective service retirement date or following your DROP termination date, you cannot be reemployed in any capacity with any FRS participating employer. If you are reemployed with an FRS employer in any capacity during this six calendar month period, your retirement application will be cancelled and you will be required to repay all retirement benefits received including any DROP accumulation or payout. There are no exceptions to the six calendar month termination requirements.

Examples of six month termination requirement period:

- If you retire without participating in DROP and terminate your employment on June 10 and retire effective July 1, you cannot have any employment relationship with any FRS employer during the calendar months of July through December.
- If you terminate DROP on August 31, you cannot have any employment relationship with any FRS employer during the calendar months of September through February.

Reemployment Restrictions - During the seventh through the twelfth calendar months of your service retirement or following your DROP termination date, you may return to work for an FRS participating employer but your retirement benefits shall be suspended for the months you are employed in any capacity with a participating FRS employer. Exceptions for FRS retirees are outlined in Section 121.091(9), Florida Statutes.

There are no restrictions on working for an FRS employer after the twelfth calendar month.

If you retired under the disability provisions of the FRS and become employed with any employer whether public or private, your disability benefit will be discontinued. There are no reemployment exceptions for disability retirees.

When your name is added to the retired payroll, you will receive a "READY.SET.RETIRE." guide that further explains the FRS reemployment provisions.

If you have any questions about the effects of reemployment on your retirement benefits, you may call toll free at (844) 377-1888 or the local number (850) 907-6500, e-mail retirement@dms.myflorida.com or write to:

Independent contractors are self-employed individuals in the business of providing services to the general public. After retiring from the FRS Pension Plan you may enter into a contract with any FRS employer as an independent contractor without being subject to the reemployment after retirement provisions. Becoming a contract employee with a FRS employer who receives a Form 1099 instead of a W-2 is not becoming an independent contractor.

If you are considering providing independent contractor services to a FRS employer during the first 12 calendar months of your effective service retirement date or following your DROP termination date, you must complete the Employment Relationship Questionnaire (ERQ-1) and submit a copy of your contract to the Division of Retirement's Enrollment Section for a worker status determination.

CAUTION: DO NOT RETURN TO WORK AS A "CONSULTANT" OR INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR WITH AN FRS EMPLOYER UNTIL THE DIVISION OF RETIREMENT HAS FIRST PROVIDED YOU A DETERMINATION OF YOUR WORKER STATUS.
