

Purchasing Department Receives National Purchasing Institute's "Annual Achievement of Excellence In Procurement Award" for the Third Consecutive Year

The District School Board of Pasco County Purchasing Department was informed on July 2, 2007 of their success in attaining the Achievement of Excellence in Procurement Award presented by the National Purchasing Institute. This is the third consecutive year the District was recognized for this award. The award is designed to recognize organizational excellence in public or non-profit procurement. The annual award is earned by those organizations that demonstrate excellence by obtaining a high score based on standardized criteria. The criteria are designed to measure innovation, professionalism, productivity, e-procurement and leadership attributes of the procurement organization. The National Purchasing Institute founded the Achievement of Excellence Program in 1995 and The District was the only Florida School system to consecutively receive this award in 2005, 2006, and 2007.

The award is sponsored by:
National Purchasing Institute
Institute for Supply Management
California Association of Public Purchasing Officers
Florida Association of Public Purchasing Officers
National Institute of Governmental Purchasing
National Association of State Procurement Officials
National Association of Educational Buyers
The Innovations Groups
U.S. Communities
Texas Purchasing Management Association
Airport Purchasing Group

