

NEW HOURS!

What is Creation Station?

It's a re-use center for School Board Employees and non-profit groups who are looking for a FREE source for arts and craft materials. Customers are encouraged to browse through the shop and take anything they can use.

What kind of materials are available?

Ceramic tile, paper products, small manipulative items, greeting cards, calendars, fabric, wallpaper, wood, books, magazines, office supplies, foam, cardboard, craft materials, seasonal items, craft paint, and much more!

We are open from 3:00 - 7:00 p.m. on the following dates:

February 3, 2011

April 7, 2011

June 2, 2011

Where is it located?

The District School Board of Pasco County Administrative Office Complex in Building #5a. Travel west on Gator Lane and make your first left at the two-story Building, #4. Creation Station is located in the mobile building #5a, just behind Building #4.

Thank you! Your donations are helping to make Creation Station a great place to get reusable items! For more information, please visit our website at: <http://recycle.pasco.k12.fl.us> or contact Karen Bryant, Recycling Coordinator at (813) 794-2752.

For safety reasons children are not permitted at Creation Station.
