

What Can You Do?

- Donate to Childhood Cancer research—some listed below.
- Participate in Childhood Cancer Charity events.
- Donate blood. Childhood cancer patients often need transfusions.
- Wear gold in September to raise awareness about Childhood Cancer.
- Apply pressure to Congress and pharmaceutical companies to research new medications to treat childhood cancer.

Upcoming Events

- American Childhood Cancer Organization. “Go Gold for Kids”. Organizations can plan awareness and funding raising activities in September. Wearing gold shirts, clothing, gold ribbons ,etc. to raise awareness of September as Childhood Cancer Awareness month. Www.acco.org/gogold/
- St. Jude Hospital Walk/Run to Find a Cure. September 26, 2017 Location: Amalie Arena , Tampa, Fl. fundraising.stjude.org
- CURESEARCH Walk Super Heroes Unite September 16, 2017 Location: Walter Fuller Park 7891 26th Ave. N St. Petersburg, Fl. <https://curesearch.org>
- Fall Stampede Walk/Run Children's Cancer Center September 9, 2017 Location: Curtis Hixon Park, Tampa. Fl.
- Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation Pediatric Cancer Charity alexslemonade.org
- St. Baldrick's Foundation Non-profit for cancer research stbaldricks.org