Message from the Superintendent

The 2010-2011 school year is off to a great start, as we have a strong team of talented educators working throughout our schools every day. We are eager to partner with you to make this a successful school year for your child. One important way we can work together to maximize your child's potential is to reinforce the expectation of good attendance. When students prioritize being at school on time, they are more likely to have a successful experience. We appreciate your help in achieving this important goal.

Our theme for the year is Learning in the 21st Century. You will notice an emphasis on the integration of technology into your child's learning as we strive to prepare all students for the challenges of tomorrow and provide equitable access to the tools he or she will need for success. Additionally, our focus is on developing the 21st Century Literacy skills that are needed in our ever-changing world. We want to help our students become better problem solvers, engaged in the world around them and equipped with the critical thinking skills that are needed for analyzing, developing innovative solutions and sharing their creativity with others. Today's students are tomorrow's leaders and we are fostering a supportive learning environment that will help them to reach their dreams.

As we immerse students in an enriching educational environment, we will be expanding the availability of digital learning content. With the use of these resources comes the need for a higher level of personal responsibility for students. We want to help your child develop an understanding of how to navigate online resources in a responsible and safe manner. As part of the cultivation of those skills, we will enforce high expectations that all students will appropriately use these tools to enhance their education. Your help in reminding your child to use technology in an appropriate manner would be greatly appreciated.

As you are probably aware, our District still faces significant financial challenges. In addition to a third consecutive year of multi-million dollar budget shortfalls, districts throughout the state are required to implement the final phase of the class size amendment this year. Despite these challenges, we remain committed to prioritizing the needs of students and ensuring a high quality educational experience for the children of Pasco County.

Again, thank you for your support of our school district. We look forward to working with you to maximize your child's success this year.

Message from the Principal

Pasco Middle School's philosophy is one of excellence. We believe that high expectations yield high results. During the past year, Pasco Middle School enjoyed the first fruits of our campus renovation and reconstruction. A sixteen-classroom building was opened after winter break. We also look forward to the completion of our main academic structure in August of 2011. This school year, we will continue to focus on parental involvement in student learning. Parent nights and an entire campus academic focus will unite our community and strengthen our learning experiences. We are looking forward to the 2010-2011 school year with great anticipation. Pirates have PRIDE in everything they do!

School Improvement Plan 2010-2011

For the 2009-2010 school year Pasco Middle School did not meet our School Improvement Plan goals in reading, writing, math, or science. For the ensuing year, these subjects will all provide areas for improvement. Our Response to Intervention Committee was very successful in implementing a school-wide incentive plan. This system taught school-wide expectations and then rewarded students and staff for exhibiting those behaviors. An intervention system for students struggling with behavior and academics was introduced during second semester. This mentoring program paired teachers with students on a daily basis to review grades, attendance, and behavior. Most students enrolled in the program saw significant improvements in one or all of the areas addressed. To increase parental and community support, a Five Star Committee was coordinated. This committee also organized the Great American Teach-In for Pasco Middle School. Pasco Middle School received the Golden School Award for 2009-2010.
